ADVERTISED:

INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS

1. INTERPRETATIONS: All questions about the meaning or intent of the Contract Documents shall be submitted in writing to the County Maintenance Director 1680 North Dolores Road, Cortez, CO 81321 or via email at dsattler@co.montezuma.co.us . Every adjustment as to the meaning of the contract documents, or any part thereof, will be in the form of an Addendum and will be issued by email or delivered to all parties recorded by the County as having received the bid documents. All such Addenda shall become part of the Contract and all contractors shall be bound by such Addenda, whether or not received by the contractors. Questions received five or more days prior to date for bids will be given consideration. Only question answered by formal written responses will be binding. Oral and other interpretations or clarifications will be without legal effect.
2. CONTRACTORS QUALIFICATIONS: The County reserves the right to make such investigations as necessary to determine the ability of contractor to perform the work as set out in the contract documents. The contractor shall furnish to the County all such information and data for this purpose as the County may request. The County reserves the right to reject any bid if the evidence submitted by, or investigation of, such contractor fails to satisfy the County that the contractor is qualified to satisfy the requirements of the contract. The County has the right to request a statement of contractor's qualifications if it deems necessary.
3. EXAMINATION OF CONTRACT DOCUMENTS AND SITE: Prior to submitting the bid, each contractor should examine the contract document thoroughly, visit the site to become familiar with existing conditions that may in any manner affect services, have knowledge of Federal, State and local laws, ordinance, rules and regulations affecting performance of the work, and carefully correlate their site observations with the requirements of the specifications, and all other contract documents. The contractor by execution of the contract shall in no way be relieved of any obligation under the contract due to their failure to examine any form, legal instrument, or to visit the site and the County will be justified in rejecting any claim as a result thereof.
4. BIDS: All bids must be submitted on forms supplied by the County and shall be subject to all requirements of the contract documents, and these instructions to contactors. All quotes must be regular in every respect and no interlineations, excisions or special conditions shall be made or included in the bid form by the contractor.

Bid documents including the bid, the bid guaranty, and the statement of the contractor's qualifications (if requested) shall be attached to the bid with job name "2027 MOCO Janitorial Services". The County may consider as irregular any bid on which there is an alteration of or departure from the bid form hereto attached and at its option may reject the same. If the contract is awarded, it will be awarded by the County to the responsible contractor on the basis of the bid complying with the conditions of the request for bid. The Contract will require the completion of the work according to the contract documents.

5. READING OF BIDS: Bids will be received at www.bidnetdirect.com until 4:00 p.m. Monday October 26, 2026.
